Form 990-PF, Part XIV, Line 3a - Summary of Grantmaking Activities

Explanation:

The Klarman Family Foundation seeks to identify areas of unmet need and to advance solutions to addressing them. We believe passionately in the promise and importance of creative thinking, strategic leadership and strong organizations to help bring about change. Our intention as a Foundation is to help make measurable progress in improving the lives of others.

Our work is guided by the following principles and values:

- We approach our work with a seriousness of purpose and evaluative rigor, and with an openness to tackle issues in new ways and the flexibility to adjust along the way.
- Because society's problems seem to be compounding rapidly, we approach our work with a sense of urgency and willingness to invest based on the opportunities to make a difference rather than the limits of an annual grant-making budget.
- We believe that the preservation of democratic norms lies at the core of our work, and that a healthy democracy is crucial to all we seek to achieve.
- We value acting in partnership with other funders. We view these relationships as opportunities to learn and leverage greater impact. We apply what we learn to improve our philanthropic practices and outcomes.
- We make funding decisions based on careful review of an organization's strategies and effectiveness, leadership and financial position. Our funding is intended to strengthen organizations, often through unrestricted support, so that they can make a measurable difference in pursuing their goals.

The Foundation's grantmaking spans several areas of interest. The issues we are addressing are complicated, requiring new and creative thinking and persistence over time. As we are committed to learning and assessing our impact, the following categories and our specific strategies within them will evolve. Our dedication to applying best practices in philanthropy will remain unchanged.

In 2021, the Foundation distributed almost $14M in "Rapid Response" grants to help address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic as well as its challenges to civic engagement, and in response to various humanitarian and other crises. These grants represent supplemental funding to current grantees, as well as grants to new initiatives, and contributions to pooled funds across several geographies. Grants that are considered Rapid Response and/or include supplemental Rapid Response funds are noted within multiple grantmaking categories on the following pages. To complement its expanded grantmaking, the Foundation also supported grantee partners by streamlining proposals and reports and by accelerating scheduled grant payments.

Statement(s) 14, 15

Healthy Democracy: $25,606,000

We believe that a healthy democracy is crucial to everything we seek to achieve as a foundation, and we recognize that strengthening democracy requires a long-term approach in order to support lasting change. Our work is rooted in a belief that a healthy democracy is built upon: A commitment to treating all people justly and equally under the law; a civically engaged public informed by truth and facts; an inclusive society where people know, trust, and care about each other and the common good; a system of representative and responsive government; an understanding of history, and a commitment to working toward a civic culture of shared belonging and responsibility. We approach the complex and long-term work of strengthening democracy with an eye towards both the structural side of democracy and the human side of democracy. This means strengthening the systems and institutions that serve as the backbone of civic participation and representation, as well as investing in work grounded in communities to bridge divides, build social cohesion, solve problems together, and foster a shared sense of commitment to the common good.

Good Philanthropic Citizen and Community Grants: $23,283,000

The Foundation is committed to fostering inclusive communities, broadening connections to arts and culture, and expanding access to the critical services that help to make communities stronger, healthier, and more vibrant. While the majority of grants in this category focus geographically in Massachusetts, the Foundation also values the role it plays within some national and global contexts, acting nimbly as opportunities or needs arise. Grants in this category cluster around long-standing philanthropic interests such as bolstering a safety net, increasing access to opportunities, strengthening communities of color through capital support, and building social cohesion and addressing hate within and across Massachusetts. Over time, new strategies may emerge from this category.

Medical and Scientific Research: $12,186,496

The Foundation supports research that advances the understanding of the biological basis of health and disease by fostering global collaborations and innovation across scientific disciplines and institutions, invests in tools and technologies that accelerate scientific discovery, and advances biomedical research through open access and data sharing. Current research interests include advancing the neurobiology and genetic understanding of anorexia nervosa. In addition, the Foundation works to foster and strengthen the biomedical research community in Israel with partnerships and grantmaking initiatives across institutions and disciplines.

Funder Collaborations and Bold Bets: $6,460,265

The Foundation values working in partnerships as an effective means to increase learning, build capacity and maximize impact. In addition, the Foundation supports a small number of organizations, led by extraordinary leaders whose bold ideas, and initial outcomes hold significant promise for positive, wide scale impact.

Children's Mental Health: $5,633,750

The Foundation believes that the path to improving access and connection to high-quality children's mental health care requires a comprehensive, equitable, and integrated system of care that is offered where children, live, learn, and already receive care. The Foundation's grantmaking prioritizes interventions that are evidence-based or rooted in best-practice, outcomes-driven, timely, culturally relevant, trauma-informed, and delivered by a diverse, well-trained and retained workforce that is culturally and linguistically responsive to the unique needs of individuals, families, and communities across Massachusetts.

Arab Israeli Employment and Education: $4,603,750

The Foundation is committed to improving the quality of life and access to opportunities for all Israeli citizens, including a focus on Arab Israeli communities, the country's largest minority population. Likewise, the Foundation supports building trusting relationships across diverse Israeli communities to advance the common good. The Foundation's grantmaking focuses on increasing access to and success in higher education, leadership development and professional employment for Arabs in Israel.

Music Pathways for Youth: $1,960,000

The Foundation believes that music is a powerful medium that enriches the lives of individuals and contributes to a thriving local community. It seeks to support equitable access to high quality music instruction so that youth have the opportunity to develop the skills, discipline, and focus that will enrich their own lives and give them tools to be a positive force in the world around them. In addition to providing operating support grants to music education programs, the Foundation addresses other barriers such as lack of access to appropriate instruments and limited professional development opportunities for music educators and teaching artists to strengthen their ability to teach and mentor students along the music pathway.

Connections to Israel: $1,525,000

The Foundation believes Israel is essential to the Jewish experience, and that Israel's significance extends beyond its importance to the Jewish people. It is a dynamic, diverse and democratic society, with an entrepreneurial spirit that has enabled it to make a positive global impact in many fields, including science, technology and medicine. The Foundation supports engaging educational experiences that build authentic relationships between Americans and their Israeli peers.

Other Grants and Contributions: $1,254,967

This category includes contributions made through the Foundation's employee matching gifts program, conference sponsorships, grants to organizations that no longer fit with the Foundation's areas of interest, and capital grants that are adjacent to Foundation strategies.
